GINS

Gin is a distilled spirit made from juniper berries and a carefully selected blend of botanicals, including coriander, angelica root, and citrus fruits. Its versatility makes it an ideal base for cocktails like the gin and tonic or the martini, though it can also be enjoyed neat or on the rocks. For the best experience, it's recommended to serve it in a wide glass with a quality tonic water and a garnish that enhances its aromas, such as lemon peel, cucumber, or rosemary.
